Additional: Accreditation / Approval in different countries – list compiled by Westcliff

Degree Recognition

Westcliff University is proud to share the degree recognitions earned for its programs.

This is a list of countries in which Westcliff University's degrees are officially and specifically recognized by the local country's Ministry of Education (MOE) or other relevant education authorities. Note that most countries do not have an official list of recognized universities; as such, this is a compilation of only those countries which do publish official lists of recognized universities. As Westcliff University degrees are fully accredited in the U.S., alumni typically successfully apply for local degree recognition in the rare cases in which it is required by their home country.

Note: Students are encouraged to please check with their local bodies on process for recognition or equivalency/ need for residency / any special conditions required by the local authorities to be fulfilled before enrolling for the Westcliff DBA

China: Chinese Service Center for Scholarly Exchange (CSCSE)

Information taken directly from the official Chinese CSCSE website:

Westcliff University is accredited by the Chinese Service Center for Scholarly Exchange (CSCSE).

The Chinese Service Center for Scholarly Exchange (CSCSE) is the only official organization that provides overseas credential evaluation and recognition services in China. The CSCSE's major clients are Chinese students and scholars who have finished their studies overseas, as well as foreigners who want to further their studies or career in China. The statement of comparability of overseas qualifications issued by CSCSE is widely recognized by Chinese employers and institutions from various sectors.

CSCSE is an active member in the international education community who facilitates global talent mobility and improves international recognition of qualifications. Entrusted by the China National Commission for UNESCO, CSCSE wishes to develop into a national information center, with a focus on foreign higher education and qualification recognition.

Germany: Kultusministerkonferenz - Central Office for Foreign Education

Information taken directly from the official Education System in the Federal Republic of Germany website:

Westcliff University is accredited by the Kultusministerkonferenz, Central Office for Foreign Education. The Central Office for Foreign Education (ZAB) is the central authority for the evaluation of foreign qualifications in Germany. These include school-leaving certificates, vocational qualifications and academic degrees.

The ZAB provides services for educational institutions, public authorities and individuals. Each year more than 200,000 enquiries are processed. Depending on the particular purpose, there are a number of different authorities responsible for the recognition of foreign professional qualifications. These authorities may ask the ZAB for expert assessment in individual cases or for general information about a country and its educational system. Information about foreign educational systems is also accessible via the database 'anabin'. The link to the 'anabin' can be found here: <https://anabin.kmk.org/anabin.html>.

Saudi Arabia: The Saudi Arabian Cultural Mission (SACM)

Information taken directly from the official Saudi Arabian Cultural Mission (SACM) website:

Westcliff University is accredited by the Saudi Arabian Cultural Mission (SACM). The SACM to the United States is one of the specialized agencies created by the Saudi government in 1951 to administer programs and policies to meet the educational and cultural needs of Saudis studying in the United States. It also functions as an intermediary between U.S. educational institutions and their counterparts in the Kingdom in terms of issues pertaining to culture, education and science.
